HOW CAN I USE THESE TASK CARDS?

There are so many different ways you can use these task cards during your reading block. Below are some of our buyers favorite ways to use this resource.

Suggested Uses:

- Strategy Lessons
- Homework
- Quick Assessments
- Independent Practice
- Spiral Review
- Test Prep
- Small Group Lessons
- Morning Work
- Reading Warm-Ups
- Intervention Time
- Literacy Work Station

And the list goes on...

Option #1 - Just the Text

One of the printing options for the task cards is to print JUST the text. Each task card has a short reading passages (takes up half a page). The passages lend themselves to the specific focus skill of the set, but you really could use them to teach any reading skill.

- This set of task cards is ideal if you want to use them in the “traditional” task card way.
- I suggest printing them on cardstock and either putting them all on a book ring or in a photo box.
- There are 3 options of reading response sheets included so students can read the passages and respond on a separate page.

Option #2 - Passage & Graphic Organizer

One of the printing options included in this set includes the passage and a graphic organizer template. These task cards can be printed front and back and work great in a center, as part of your small group instruction, or even for guided practice.

- On the front of each task card is a short reading passage (the same numbers and titles as option #1).
- The bottom of each task card includes a few questions to prompt students thinking about the focus skill.
- On the back, there is a graphic organizer template that will help students think about the characters in the story.

*Digital versions are included for all three sets of task cards.***

Option #3 - Passage & Response Questions

One of the printing options for each set includes the passage and reading response questions. These task cards can be printed front and back and work great in a center, as part of your small group instruction, or even for guided practice.

- On the front of each task card is a short reading passage (the same numbers and titles as option #1).
- The bottom of each task card includes a few questions to prompt students thinking about the characters.
- On the back, there is space for a sticky note so students can jot down their thinking about the text. There are also two text-based comprehension questions.

*Digital versions are included for all three sets of task cards.***

Includes Digital Versions

I love to provide both print and digital options in my resources. This resource includes a digital version created using Google Slides.

There are three different digital versions included (to match the three different printing options).

- Option 1: The text with a generic space for student response.
- Option 2: The text with the graphic organizer at the bottom (this one is pictured to the right)
- Option 3: The text with the text-based comprehension questions on the bottom.
